

Suspending Reports

By suspending a started report, you stop it from accumulating any further data; the data already accumulated is not purged.

To suspend a report

1. Enter the SU command on the selection line preceding the report name from the Started Reports screen.

The status of the report on the Started Reports screen is changed from A(ctive) to S(uspended). A message indicating a change in report status is displayed.