I/O Summary... Reports

The two I/O summary reports "I/O Summary by RABN" and "I/O Summary by Volume" may be used to determine the components against which I/Os are performed. For commands issuing at least one I/O, these reports list the Adabas component against which the I/O was performed, and either the Adabas relative block number or the volume serial number of the device.