

Required Maintenance

During the final certification stages of this release fixes are produced after the final freeze of the installation kit. Depending upon timing some or all of the available fixes may be supplied with the kit in an "all zaps" dataset. These fixes, and any others that also appear in SL24, should be applied during the installation process. The following fixes are currently known to be required:

None