

Inter-Operating with Previous Releases

Transaction Manager 8.2 is able to inter-operate previous supported releases dynamically as transactions include databases managed by earlier releases. All transaction managers in the same System Coordinator group must be at the same software level because inter-operation support is implemented across groups not within them.