

%Q - Suppress Next Input

In interactive processing, the %Q command is ignored.

SET CONTROL 'Q' causes the next INPUT statement not to be processed. This may be used, for example, if at the end of a help routine the processing is to continue without the user having to press ENTER upon return from the help to the map.