

Managing Messages in Different Libraries

You can transfer messages between different libraries by using either the EXPORT and IMPORT commands as described in Direct Commands, or the Object Handler as described in the relevant documentation.

You can also use the Object Handler to move, rename, find, list or delete messages in different libraries.

---