Leave-Cell Event

This chapter covers the following topics:

- Applies To

- Description

Applies To

Table Control.

Description

Occurs whenever the end user moves the focus away from a cell (for example, by clicking on another cell in the table control or by using TAB to enter another cell).

If this event occurs in a cell, the ROW and COLUMN attributes are modified so that they contain the position of the cell.