

HEADER-FONT-HANDLE

Serves as a handle to assign a certain combination of font face, font size, and font style to the first column and the header line of a table control. Assigning an existing font handle value to this attribute leads to the header being displayed in this font.

Applies to	Table control.
Data Type	HANDLE
Default Value	System font
Possible Values	System font / any other defined fonts