

%L - Disable Lower- to Upper-Case Translation

This command prevents that lower-case characters are translated to upper-case by Natural.

%L influences the interactive input which is entered, for example, with a Natural `INPUT` statement. It does not, however, influence the input from the stack.

See also the terminal command %U.