Object Specification - All Objects

Applies to the load and scan functions only.

The option All objects is used to select all objects available in the work file for processing. For descriptions of keywords and valid input values, see select-clause in the section Direct Commands.