

System Administration

This document covers the following topics:

	System Administration	Describes the maintenance and control functions available to you as system administrator.
	Archive Administration	Describes the archiving functions.
	Printer Exits, User Separation Routines, Separator Pages	Describes printer exits, user separation routines and separator pages.
	Transferring Objects	Describes how you can transfer Entire Output Management objects from one environment to another.
	Report Status	Describes how Entire Output Management creates active reports according to master report definitions.
	Long Records	Describes the use of long records.
	Using Entire Operations to Schedule Archive and Revive Jobs	Describes how Entire Operations can be used to schedule Entire Output Management archive and revive jobs.