Overview

It is quite easy to integrate your application inside Application Designer at startup time. You have to

- provide a startup class supporting the interface
  `com.softwareag.cis.server.IServletInitHandler,`

- register this class by editing a configuration file inside Application Designer.