

About this Documentation

The information in this documentation covers all the steps needed to install Application Designer. It is subdivided into the following topics:

•	Installation Information	General information on the installation and on the hardware and software prerequisites.
•	License File	Information on the required license file.
•	Installation on Windows	Describes how to install Application Designer on Windows.
•	Installation on UNIX Platforms	Describes how to install Application Designer on UNIX systems.
•	Installation Scenarios	Information on the different installation scenarios (for example, installation within your own Tomcat environment).
•	Installing Ajax Developer	How to install the Ajax Developer plug-ins in Eclipse.