About this Documentation

Exercise Objectives

In this exercise you will improve your web application by creating ApplinX Tables.

ApplinX tables are created using the Screen Editor. ApplinX automatically takes all multiple fields in the screen and merges them into a single table view, which can edited and filtered.

	Creating Tables	Follow this exercise to create the tables used in the Instant demo application.